

What is Foster Care?

If my home is unsafe for me, I may have to live in a different home.

This home is called a foster home.

FOSTER HOME

There will be adults who take care of me and keep me safe in my foster home.

They are called foster parents.

There may be other children living in my foster home.

When I leave my home, I may get to take some of my favorite things to my foster home.

What is Foster Care?

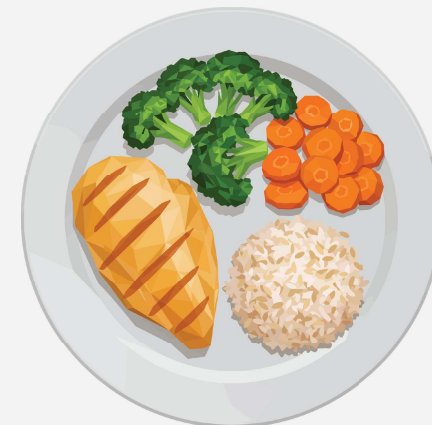

I may also get new things at my foster home.

I may have to wear clothes that look and feel different from my old clothes.

The food my foster parents cook may taste different.

The bed in my foster home may feel different from my bed at home.

There may be new rules I will have to follow.

The court will decide if or when I can see my parents.

What is Foster Care?

People I don't know may ask me questions about my family.

I will meet new adults when they visit me at my foster home.

These new adults may pick me up for school.

They may take me to the doctor.

Someone might take me to court to meet with a judge, who will ask me questions.

The court will decide if or when I can go back home.
