Completing an IM4Q Interview Virtually

You will get a link to do the interview on the computer.

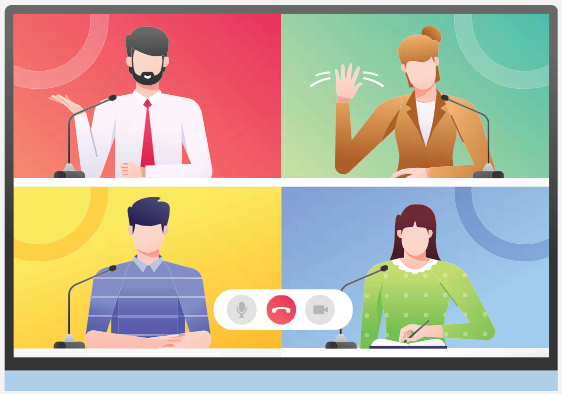

You can complete the interview in the room where your computer is.

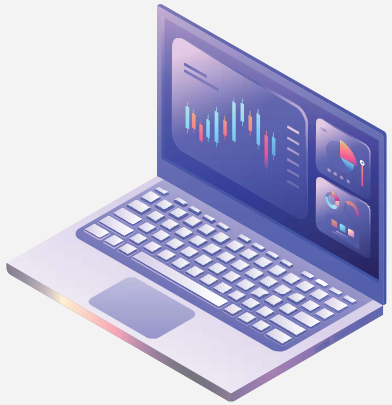

You can have a family member or staff with you during the interview.

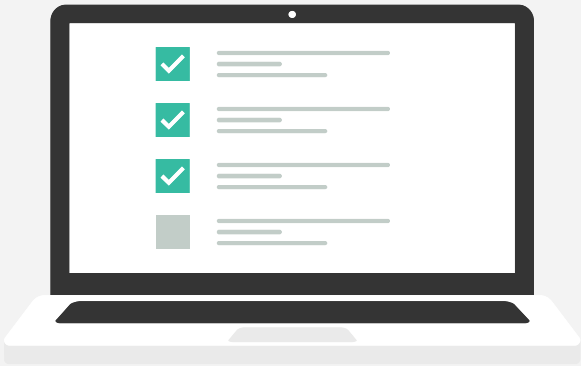

Two or three interviewers will be on the computer to ask you questions.

The questions will be about services you receive, your life, health, safety, how happy you are, and the choices you get to make.

You can choose which questions to answer. You can skip questions if you do not want to answer.

Completing an IM4Q Interview Virtually

It will take about 1 hour to ask the questions.

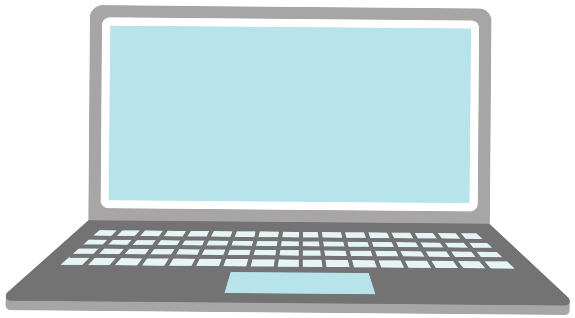

You can take a break or stop the interview at any time.

After the survey is done, you can leave the virtual meeting on the computer.
