

RULES FOR MY BODY

It is NOT okay for others to look at my private parts.

It is NOT okay for others to show me their private parts.

It is NOT okay for others to make me touch their private parts.

It IS okay to touch my own private parts when I am alone in a private place.

I am in charge of my body.

I can decide who is allowed to touch me.

This campaign promotes the idea of body autonomy for individuals with disabilities. ASERT has partnered with researchers at the National Crime Victims Research and Treatment Center at the Medical University of South Carolina to develop resources for the Be Safe campaign.

The Autism Services, Education, Resources and Training (ASERT) Collaborative is a statewide initiative funded by the Bureau of Autism Services, PA Department of Human Services.
