

WHAT IS RESILIENCE?

Resilience is something that everyone has.

Being resilient means that I am able to stay calm and in control when there is a challenge.

Resilience can help me get through tough times.

Resilience can help me cope with difficult situations.

I can learn skills to help me be more resilient.

It takes time and practice to build resilience.

