

WHAT IS PAROLE?

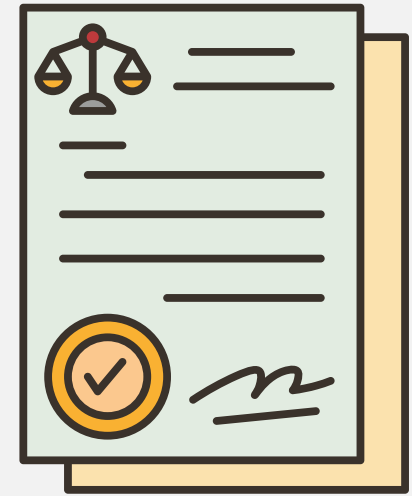

Parole is when a prisoner is allowed to leave prison early.

Parole lets prisoners finish their sentence outside of prison.

A prisoner can only apply for parole when they become eligible.

Eligibility for parole depends on the type of crime, length of prison sentence, and behavior of the prisoner.

When a prisoner is near their parole eligibility date they will submit an application.

A parole application is a written request for parole.

