

WEARING GLOVES - PART 1

Wearing gloves when you go out can help keep you safe if used properly.

If you don't have gloves, that's okay.

Gloves are most important for people like doctors and nurses.

Wearing gloves puts a barrier between your hands and what you touch.

Wearing gloves only helps if you use them the right way.

If you decide to use gloves, always have clean hands before putting them on.

