

A Pennsylvania Gathering: Critical Topics in Autism

Hosted by: Mike Bomberger & Tom Hassell
supported by the ASERT Collaborative

TOPIC: Advice to My Younger Self: How to Say Yay, Nay, and “All That Stuff”

Interested in hearing the stories from others about communication, advocacy, and maintaining connections? Be a part of the discussion with parents, siblings, and autistic individuals sharing their experience with relationships, social lives, communication, and more!

JANUARY 20
3:30PM – 4:30PM

Audience:

- People living with autism
- Families living with autism
- Providers
- Professionals
- Autism organizations

REGISTER HERE

The PA Gathering: Critical Topics in Autism are virtual events featuring people with lived experience and other experts with an opportunity for audience Q&A. The outcomes of the PA Gatherings are to increase knowledge and awareness of resources about issues that are important to the autism community.

Pennsylvania's leading source of autism-related resources and information.

877-231-4244

The ASERT Collaborative is funded by the Office of Developmental Programs, PA Department of Human Services.

A Pennsylvania Gathering: Critical Topics in Autism

Hosted by: Mike Bomberger & Tom Hassell
supported by the ASERT Collaborative

JANUARY 20 | 3:30PM – 4:30PM

TOPIC: Advice to My Younger Self:
How to Say Yay, Nay, and “All That Stuff”

A Pennsylvania Gathering: Critical Topics in Autism

Hosted by: Mike Bomberger & Tom Hassell
supported by the ASERT Collaborative