STUDENT ENRICHMENT & ENROLLMENT PROJECT

MADE POSSIBLE BY A GRANT FROM THE RICHARD KING MELLON FOUNDATION

Evolve Coaching is recruiting low-income*, neurodiverse students with an interest in applying to a postsecondary program.

Applicants can be rising high school seniors, recent graduates, or community college students from Allegheny and neighboring counties.

Coaching and workshops will take place June 2022 – April 2023, both online and in-person. Bus passes can be provided.

Chosen participants will receive (at no cost):

- 135 hours of individualized support via one-on-one coaching sessions, group meetings, and workshops for students & parents
- An overnight campus experience at a local Pgh University
- Support with applying to at least one postsecondary program
- Help navigating resources for future support

*Low-income = household income at or below 3 times the federal poverty level.

Neurodiverse = autism, Asperger's, ADHD, dyslexia, dysgraphia, dyscalculia, executive functioning disorder, nonverbal learning disability. Those who suspect they may have one of these diagnoses but are not officially diagnosed are also encouraged to apply.
